Sevens Sports

Sevens Sports, LLC is a sports event management and marketing company, focused primarily on the growing sport of rugby in the United States. Sevens Sports recently hosted the inaugural American Collegiate Rugby Championship Bowl Series in Charlotte, NC. Eighteen college and two high school teams traveled to the Rugby Athletic Center for a series of championship matches.

July 2014 marked Sevens Sports' 11th annual Surfside Sevens rugby tournament in Stone Harbor, Wildwood and Wildwood Crest, NJ. The 80 team tournament celebrates rugby sevens at all ages and is our yearly festival that closes the sevens season.

Surfside Sevens was introduced to Virginia Beach in April of 2014. As part of Surfside Sevens Virginia Beach, Sevens Sports hosted the inaugural American Collegiate Rugby Championship Sevens (ACRC 7s). The event will return to Virginia Beach in 2015 and 2016.

In 2005, Sevens Sports principals managed the Ivy Rugby Championship held at A. A. Garthwaite Stadium in Conshohocken, PA. The two-day rugby 15s tournament featured all eight men's teams of the Ivy League.

SEVENS RUGBY

Sevens is played on a field approximately 130 yards long (including end zones) by 75 yards wide with seven players per side over seven minute halves. Sevens matches are played every 20-25 minutes in tournament format and take place over one or two days.

Twelve men's teams and twelve women's teams will appear in the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio next summer.

APRIL 11 & 12, 2015 - APRIL 25-26

In April 2015, Sevens Sports will host the inaugural URugby Sevens Challenge Cup. The event feature up to 32-team interconference collegiate sevens tournament over a two-day period.

Two weeks later, URugby will host yet another 32 team tournament over 2 days in Virginia Beach. The event will feature the American Collegiate Rugby Championship Sevens competition.

IN 2015, SEVENS SPORTS WILL HOST A SERIES OF RUGBY EVENTS

APR 11-12 '15 URUGBY CHALLENGE CUP — Malvern, PA

APR 25-26 '15 URUGBY (ACRC 7S) — Virginia Beach, VA

JUL 18-19 '15 SURFSIDE SEVENS — Stone Harbor, NJ

NOV 21-23 '15 ACRC BOWL SERIES — Charlotte, NC

URugby Sevens

TWO DATES: APRIL 11-12 AND APRIL 25-26

In April 2015, Sevens Sports will host the two events. On April 11-12 the inaugural URugby Sevens Challenge Cup kicks off in Malvern, PA. Later in April on the 25th and 26th, the second annual URugby Sevens Virginia Beach will feature the American Collegiate Rugby Championship Sevens. Both events host up to 32 collegiate sevens teams over a two-day period.

Our market segment includes teams from the Northeast, Mid-Atlantic, Atlantic Coast, Southeast, Midwest and into the Southwest, though all teams in the country are eligible to participate.

CONFERENCES AND TEAMS

Sevens Sports reached out to teams across the country to invite them to this tournament. Any team is welcome to participate but here is a list of some of the conferences and notable teams who plan to be in attendance.

CONFERENCES

Big Ten, Atlantic Coast, Rugby East, East Coast, Empire, Ivy Rugby, Keystone, Independent, Mid-Atlantic, Eastern Pennsylvania, Potomac, Tri-State, Southwest, Southeast Conferences

TEAMS

American International College, Bentley University, Bowling Green University, Colgate University, Columbia University, Drexel University, East Stroudsburg University, Fordham University, Georgetown University, Holy Family University, Kutztown University, Lafayette College, Lehigh University, Life University, Miami of Ohio, Middlebury College, Notre Dame College, Penn State University, Princeton University, Rutgers University, Sacramento State, St. Bonaventure University, St. Joseph's University, Stony Brook University, Temple University, Texas A&M, Texas State University, UMass Lowell, University of Cincinnati, University of Pennsylvania, Ursinus College, US Air Force Academy, Villanova University, Washington College, West Point, Western Michigan University

Success Story: ACRC Sevens Virginia Beach

May 3rd and 4th, 2014, Sevens Sports hosted our first tournament in Virginia Beach, VA at the Virginia Beach Sportsplex. The event featured top collegiate rugby teams from around the country including Penn State, Kutztown, Temple, St. Joseph's, University of Cincinnati and the American International College.

Surfside Virginia Beach was born out of the American Collegiate Rugby Championship Sevens. We expect, like Surfside Stone Harbor, for the event to grow each and every year. In 2015 the event was renamed URugby Sevens Virginia Beach and will still feature the American Collegiate Rugby Championship Sevens.

We've committed to three years in Virginia Beach including the weekend of April 25-26, 2015 and are working to forge a long lasting relationship with the Virginia Beach CVB and Virginia Beach businesses.

Expected Attendance: 3,000-4,000

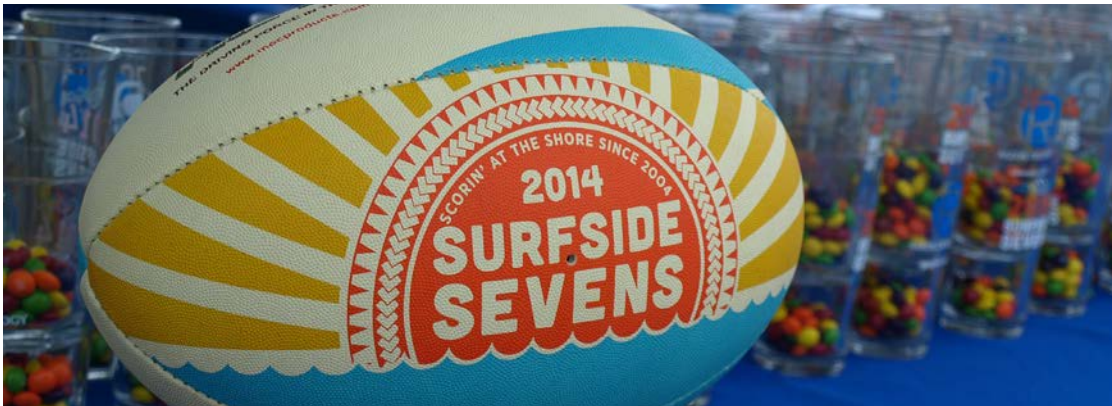

Success Story: Surfside Stone Harbor

In 2004, the Philadelphia Whitemarsh Rugby Football Club, in cooperation with Sevens Sports principals Stephen and Amy Siano started a rugby sevens tournament at the beach. The tournament, Surfside Sevens, started small with just one field adjacent to the beach in Stone Harbor, NJ. From its inception, Surfside Sevens has been the rugby festival celebrating the last tournament of the summer season in the Mid-Atlantic region.

In July 2015, Sevens Sports will host the 12th annual Surfside Sevens Stone Harbor. The event is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday July 18th and 19th. The event will host many age-divisions of play adding up to 80 participating teams. Last year's event drew over 2,000 participants and fans per day on four fields in three towns in New Jersey including Wildwood, Wildwood Crest and Stone Harbor making it the largest Surfside Sevens to date.

Expected Attendance: 4,000-5,000

As the tournament has grown, there has been an increasing interest from all over the country including teams from as far away as Aspen, Hawaii, California, Colorado, Cleveland, Charlotte, Atlanta, Boston, Bermuda and Toronto.

Surfside Stone Harbor is truly unique in the variety of ages that take to the field. Our oldest teams in the Old Boy division, had players in their sixties. Our youngest division consists of players all under the age of 13.

The festival of rugby to end the season is open to all teams on a first come, first serve basis. Any and all teams are eligible to participate. As the event matures, we've added more teams, more vendors and live music.

Sevens Sports

Sevens Sports, LLC was established to manage a series of sevens rugby tournaments throughout the year. Sevens Sports owns and operates the URugby and Surfside Sevens brands. Our goal is to continue the camaraderie of our sport while maintaining colorful and positive events.

Sevens Sports, LLC is dedicated to providing our teams, fans and vendors with spectacular experiences relating to our events. We are committed to providing products and services that benefit the players and the teams they represent.

We will maintain a financially strong, growth-oriented company for the protection of our employees and clients.
